2 to 5 p.m. All class times must be attended to receive course credit.
Cost includes any textbook and resource material.

Barrington UMC 98 Algonquin Road, Barrington

Class Options: (one course per academy)

- 1 Basic Course This course is foundational for all courses in Lay Servant Ministries. Participants are encouraged to consider the importance of servant leadership, developing future leaders and remaining rooted in consistent spiritual practices. Instructor: Roger Curless
- 2 Called to Preach This class is designed for those who have not completed formal preaching training or are called upon to preach in a pastor's absence. The class is a how-to guide to the resources, preparation process, and practice of preaching. Instructor: Rev. Becky Nocol
- 3 Embracing Personal Prayer The class helps participants embrace the spiritual power of prayer. Students will examine their own prayer lives and discover tools to help in the process of entering personal prayer. Instructor: Pat Michalik
- 4 Discipleship Begins with Relationships This course helps lay servant leaders understand and adopt an intentional discipleship plan for their church by creating a spiritual growth movement to See All the People. This is a new class for our district. Instructor: Rev. Norval Brown
