Featured Speaker: Dr. Timothy Tyson, author of the award-winning book “The Blood of Emmett Till”. This award winning book reexamines a pivotal event of the civil rights movement – the 1955 lynching of Emmett Till – “and demands that we do the one vital thing we aren’t often enough asked to do with history: learn from it”. Emmett Till, a young boy from Chicago, links our community to the events that took place in Mississippi and shaped the work of Dr. Martin Luther King.

Dr. Tyson is senior research scholar at the Center for Documentary Studies at Duke University and adjunct professor of American Studies at the University of North Carolina.
