

Spend a day with author Paul Nixon exploring ideas from his books "Weird Church" and "Multi". Paul passionately believes that God has a better story in mind for 21st century congregations than simply struggling for sustainability and longing for twenty years ago.

Bishop Sally Dyck will also share her thoughts on "Navigating Uncharted Waters" in our ministry together.

WEIRD CHURCH
WELCOME TO THE
TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY

What does it take for a church to thrive in the current cultural conditions? There will be time for processing and questions in addition to Paul's teaching, and guidance toward next steps that your church can take immediately.

Date: Wednesday, October 17, 2018 from 9:30 to 3:30 pm

Location: Pentecost Room on the 11th floor,
Evangelical Lutheran Center
(8765 W. Higgins Road, Chicago)

Cost: $30, includes lunch & program

Register at www.eiseverywhere.com/abms2018

Questions? Contact Martin Lee at mlee@umcnic.org
Office of Congregational Development & Redevelopment

Free Parking for the ELCA Center can be accessed from Higgins Road. When entering the parking garage, it may be necessary to press the intercom button. Please announce that you are attending a workshop at the ELCA building to gain access to the parking structure. There is a walkway to the ELCA building that can be accessed through the parking garage on the ground floor.