

Job Search Announcement from Kingswood Church

August 25, 2020

Kingswood Church, a 650-member welcoming United Methodist congregation located in the diverse northwest suburbs of Chicago, seeks a Minister to Children and Families to lead and grow our ministry to children and their families as they follow Christ and serve others. Applicants should have experience with education and Christian education as well as abilities/skills to build discipleship systems for children and their families. Skills with social media, digital practice, and volunteer recruitment/training are required. Good relational skills are necessary as well. The job description is attached. Send resume and letter of application to Rev. James Preston at jpreston@kingswoodumc.com before September 15. Questions can be directed here as well. The position is ¾ time. For more information about our congregation, visit www.kingswoodumc.com

The congregation also seeks a Coordinator of Welcoming and Including to lead and coordinate our hospitality ministry as well as our welcome and new member processes. Applicants should have good relational skills and experience with recruiting/training/deploying volunteers. Skills with social media, electronic communication, evangelism and tracking systems are helpful. Job description is attached. Send resume and letter of application to Rev. James Preston at jpreston@kingswoodumc.com before September 15. Questions can be directed here as well. The position is ¼ time. For more information about our congregation, visit www.kingswoodumc.com

NOTE: These positions could be merged to one full-time position based on applicant's abilities and interests. Please indicate if applying for both positions.