

Faith United Methodist Church of Lisle

Job Description: Pianist (Organist)/Accompanist

This position is designed to enhance the music ministry of Faith United Methodist Church by providing musical accompaniment for the congregation and traditional choir.

Primary Responsibilities:

Provide piano accompaniment for the congregation and choir during Sunday morning 9:00 A.M. worship service and weekday choir rehearsal. Musical offerings on Sunday may include hymns, anthems, special music, prelude, offertory, postlude, recessional, response, and communion music.

Work with pastor and choir director to choose music for worship.

Tasks associated with the pianist position are expected to require approximately a total of three hours per week for the traditional worship and choir rehearsal plus additional personal practice time.

Provide piano accompaniment for the congregation for special services (Easter, Maundy Thursday, Christmas Program, Ash Wednesday and Christmas Eve).

Supervision:

The pianist will directly report to the Staff Pastor Parish Relations Committee (SPPRC). The pianist has the right to talk with the SPPRC regarding issues relating to the musical ministry of the church and his/her duties in relation to that ministry.

Compensation:

The starting salary of the pianist is negotiable based on previous experience, please make request known in submitted cover letter. As a paid employee of Faith United Methodist Church, the pianist will have state and federal tax and Social Security withholdings deducted from paychecks. The pianist will be given two weeks of unpaid vacation time permissible anytime except during times of designated special services. Music accompaniment will not be required during the month of August.
