

Resurrection Fellows: Forming Future Leaders for the Church

Do you have a desire to renew the church and transform the world? Do you feel called by God to become a United Methodist pastor? The United Methodist Church of the Resurrection, in partnership with Saint Paul School of Theology, offers an innovative 3-year Resurrection Fellows Program to educate future church leaders. Resurrection Fellows receive 3 years of full-tuition, books, and fees, a ministry mentor, and a paid fellowship up to 20 hours per week at Church of the Resurrection in Leawood, Kansas. Fellows work closely with Church of the Resurrection staff to learn ministry skills in areas such as evangelism, worship, pastoral care, and discipleship.

Program Requirements

- Enrollment in the MDiv program, goal of becoming an Elder in the United Methodist Church.
- Submission of Saint Paul Fellows Application.
- Interview with Resurrection Fellows Selection Committee.
- Enrollment for credit in no less than nine credit hours at Saint Paul.
- Verification of cumulative GPA minimum of 3.0 and good standing as a Saint Paul student.
