Hurricane María Recovery
Volunteer Guidelines
2018

VOLUNTEER GUIDELINES
Culture, Religious, and Local Customs:

All teams will receive a general orientation after arriving at their host site

DO:

- Recognize that survivors own their own recovery, and have ultimate decision-making regarding their residence.
- Have confidence that the Methodist Church of Puerto Rico has done a thorough assessment to identify the needs and available resources.
- Shake hands when greeting someone and when saying good-bye. A kiss on the cheek, or an “abrazo” (hug) is not unusual.
- Take time for polite conversation; don’t just jump right into “business.”
- Give gifts only through the local pastor, District Superintendent, or Volunteer Coordinator.
- Learn as much Spanish as you can, and use it every chance you get.
- Expect to participate in charismatic-style worship.
- Smile! Smile! Smile!

DON'T:

- No drinking of alcoholic beverages
- No smoking
- No shorts to attend church
- Do not give money to individuals
- Please do not make judgements.
- Do not proselytize.
- Don't take pictures of the owners of the house you are working in, except with their permission.
- Don't drink untreated water.
- Don't wear expensive-looking jewelry and flashy clothes.
- Don't smoke or drink alcoholic beverages at any time or place while in Puerto Rico. Puerto Rican culture in church context is more conservative.
- Don't wear any tight pants or shorts. Long Bermuda-type shorts can be worn at the camp site, but NOT to a church service. Slacks for men, and skirt/dress or long pants for women, should be worn for church activities.
- DO NOT give gifts to anyone. Any private of collective gifts, should be given through the local pastor or the Puerto Rico Volunteer Coordinator.
