

*“My eyes fail from weeping,
I am in torment within;
my heart is poured out on the ground
because my people are destroyed, because children and infants faint in the streets of the city.”*

Lam 2:11

Lam 3:46-50

“All our enemies have opened their mouths

wide against us.

47

We have suffered terror and pitfalls, ruin and destruction.”

48

*Streams of tears flow from my eyes
because my people are destroyed.*

49

*My eyes will flow unceasingly,
without relief,*

50

until the Lord looks down from heaven and sees.”

400

“How do I hold on to my belief in the God of salvation and liberation, in the face of the problems and the contradictions that the world produces for my faith?”

“When the foundations are being destroyed what can the righteous do?”

Psalm 11:3

“Our problem as Americans is we actually hate history. What we love is nostalgia.”

Regie Gibson

“Slavery is embedded in the very DNA of this great and conflicted country. It took the deadliest war in American history to force its demise, and then we simply replaced this system with another form of racial apartheid. Entire frameworks were constructed to enforce this system of racial caste that allowed my ancestors to be stripped of their rights, their labor, their families, their bodies and themselves.”

Nikole Hannah-Jones

“Go on, in the name of God and in the power of his might, till even American slavery (the vilest that ever saw the sun) shall vanish away before it.”

John Wesley

“Racism has lived like a malignancy in the bone marrow of this church for years. It is high time to say we’re sorry.”

Bishop William Boyd Grove
