

SPOTLIGHT: RACE and MEDIA

HOSTED BY:

The Justice Generation is a racial justice learning and action program for high school students sponsored by the Northern Illinois Conference of The United Methodist Church.

PLEASE JOIN US:
APRIL 25, 2021,
1:00 - 2:00 PM

FEATURING SPECIAL
GUEST SPEAKER:
NATALIE MOORE
Journalist & Author

Ms. Moore will leverage her vast experience as an award-winning journalist to reflect on some of the following issues:

Natalie Moore reports on race and communities for WBEZ/NPR. Her reporting has been featured on numerous broadcast and print outlets all over the world.

Chicago Reader named Ms. Moore Journalist of the Year in 2017.

Ms. Moore is also the author of 3 books:

The South Side: A Portrait of Chicago and American Segregation,

The Almighty Black P Stone Nation: The Rise, Fall and Resurgence of an American Gang

Deconstructing Tyrone: A New Look at Black Masculinity in the Hip-Hop Generation.

Are there ways that news reporting contributes to implicit bias?

What is the role of journalism and reporting in fighting systemic racism?

How well have the lives, viewpoints and experiences of people of color been represented in the media?

How can we think critically about news coverage and media?